BS Extends Lead to Three Games

MS Gets a Monday Night Loner

Effective date: 2013-12-16

SS had a chance to shake up the standings with three differences and trailing by two games. The comeback stalled in week 15 for SS while BS picked like a three time champion, picking with confidence and grace. BS wins 2 out of 3 differences against SS and increased his lead to three games with two weeks left in the 2013 campaign.

In a crazy Week 15, sure winners didn't win, three of four consensus picks lost and only MS picked the defending world champs BAL to win. MS wins his fifth 10+ win week of the season with an exciting Loner pick on Monday night. MS, although out by 16 games is playing with pride and is fine-tuning strategies for the 2014 season. The state of Florida wins 20 games with BD and JD picking 10 winners each. BD with her ten wins won career pick 1,100 and is 13th on the all-time winning list.

No more Thursday night games this year. Get ready for the final two weeks and let's watch the picking strategies for those trailing BS.
