CM + DAL = First Place

CM, BS, KS All Tied Going Into Sunday Night

Effective date: 2014-12-15

Going into Sunday night CM, BS and KS were all tied for first place. Only CM of this distinguished group took DAL to win. For the third straight week CM and BS had four differences. This week they split so BS remains one game out. KS wins two of three GOO games vs. CM so KS picks up a game and is one game out with two weeks left. With a big opportunity to pick up ground, LF and CM had six GOO's. They split so LF waits another week to pick up some ground.

JP has put together consecutive 14 win weeks and amazingly has tied or lead for most wins each week for the past four weeks. Since week 11 JP is 52-11 and has gone from 10 games out to now three games at the conclusion of this week. Other big winners this week include KS, BD, MS and JD each posting 13 wins while CM, DP,JR, and LF had 12 winners.

Milestones include KS and DR winning their 4,300th game while BS wins number 4,650 career game this week.

Santa will be checking his list to see who has been naughty or nice to see whom he might deliver a championship to this year. Next week is the last week that members can access weekly picks as pick are kept confidential in week 17. Your's in Football,
