Membership bounces back in week two

4 lead the way with 11 wins

Effective date: 2021-09-22

Hello and welcome to this vacation edition of the weekly writeup. I join you from the always sunny Palm Desert, CA. For the sake of relaxation and poolside cocktails, let’s recap. Week 2 in the PFVCC was a solid week for most, which was a welcomed sight after lackluster opening performances (except for SR). DR, MS, LF and SS lead the way with 11 wins, followed by SR, CM, KS, BS and MM with 10. Way to grind! Hopefully this is the beginning of some great runs..

As far as loner news goes, it must have been a record week because out of the 16 games, 9 of them were were picked as loners. Here were the results

NF with 4: CAR WIN, HOU loss, JAX loss, MIN loss (barely)

DP with 3: NYJ loss, OAK WIN, DET loss

LF: DAL WIN

SR: BAL WIN

Bold picking by those 4, but everyone was able to celebrate at least 1 victory so to that we say well done!

We are now face to face with week 3. Things are about to get interesting… Cheers!!

Your President,

LF
