

Bring out the tarp: Week 5 column delayed

Effective date: 2022-10-11

Hello PFVCC faithful, it is with great regret that I must deliver such news, but the week 5 column release will be put on hold until Wednesday morning. I know you are all chomping at the bit to read the who's hot and who's not segment and I assure you it will be worth the wait. With that I'll leave you with a little appe-teaser- We have a new leader in the penthouse, the previous owner forced to packs his bags in disgust, and a man who enjoyed his last football Sunday as a bachelor take the loner board by storm. Come back tomorrow for the main course!

Your President,

LF
