

Membership Stays Hot in Week 7; Double Digit Wins is The Topic of Conversation

BS, LF and KB Load Their Cart up With 13 Wins to Take the Best Deal of the Week

Effective date: 2024-10-23

Week 7 produced another impressive week of picking from membership. In a season that has been riddled with injuries and some dark horse teams that have “prove it” mentalities, one would assume that would muddy up the waters and make selections more difficult. On the contrary, membership continues to scorch the matchups and deliver double digit win weeks like they are buy one get one free. BS, LF and KB love a hot deal when they see one and they took advantage of it, checking out with 13 wins each. In an economy like this it's nice to get ahead when you can! SS, DJ, KS & MS were next in line with coupon clippings in hand as they each took home 12 wins. DP & MM with 11 wins and CM and NF with 10 to round out the double digit hot deals for the week. PM was last in line and had to self-checkout with no discounts on his 9 win week but sometimes there's something to be said about that self-checkout line. Bag it up yourself, with no small-talk and get out quick and get ready for the next chance at a deal. Wherever you were in line this week doesn't guarantee you a deal the next, and without jinxing it, we are headed toward the mid point of the season where a certain phenomenon could loom large. But for now enjoy the deal on wins where you can get them.

NF, PM and MM purchased some faulty loners that were final sale items and non-refundable. CLE, NYG and SF were on the clearance rack, and I guess there was a reason why. No judgement cast though, we all have clutter we don't know what to do with. Nice try gents!

Week 7 has been unpacked and stocked and now we get ready for the week 8 specials. Let's hope for the winning ways to continue! Oh, and Go Dodgers!

Your President,

LF
