

SS, NF, DP & The Boys in IT Take Top Honors In Week 14

KS Gets Replaced In Another Penthouse Shakeup

Effective date: 2025-12-12

Week 14 was a wild one on many fronts, and due to it this weeks nature I will briefly illustrate the happenings. In a tough week for picking SS, NF and DP came out on top with 9 wins a piece all coming up on the right side of the GOO and improving their spots on the leaderboard. SS, after a brief vacation, has found his way back to the penthouse to replace KS who has vacated once again. CM and SS now share in the glory as they lead heading into the final 4 weeks of the season.

MM and NF chose to be loners in week 14 and it only paid off for one of them. Unfortunately for MM he was not that one as CHI lost a tough interdivisional game against GB. NF on the other hand was successful with his PIT pick bringing his total up to five loner wins on the season. Impressive stuff young buck!

As we close the book on week 14, I just wanted to shout out The Boys in IT. We battled a multitude of tech issues over the last week and without the best tech support team in the business week 15 may have seen us turn back the clocks and call in our picks for the first time in the modern era. Lucky for Mr. President that was not the case and for that we applaud The Boys in IT for their dedicated work to get us back on track!

The stretch drive is upon us... Who will answer the call?

Your President & Champ,

LF
